

June 17, 2021

Daniel Interiano

Student Address:

26 Thompson St

Subject: The Flatiron School Access Scholarship

Dear Daniel Interiano :

Congratulations on being awarded a $3,000 partial scholarship to Flatiron School's Software Engineering Flex program (the "Program") under The Flatiron School Access Scholarship! As a partial scholarship recipient, you will have an obligation to pay the remaining part of the tuition for the Program. You will also have certain responsibilities, and you agree to certain items, each as set forth in this letter agreement. Your receipt of The Flatiron School Access Scholarship is contingent on your execution of this letter.

1. You must confirm your cohort start date in the Program with your Admissions representative at the time of your admission to Flatiron School. You must begin instruction with the cohort you selected at the time of admission. If you defer admission, you forfeit access to the scholarship. Flatiron School reserves the right to delay or cancel the start of a program for reasons such as low enrollment. If your start date is cancelled due to low enrollment or another reason as dictated by Flatiron School you will not be subject to the forfeiture condition above. You must successfully complete all elements of the Program including, for example, all modules, projects, and assessments. While attending the Program, you will be expected to actively participate as a member of the Flatiron School community through discussions, group projects, etc.
2. You must follow the requirements of the Career Services section of the Flatiron School Catalog and actively work with your assigned Career Coach, as contemplated by such section.
3. As with all other participants in the Program, you will be required to comply with the terms of all agreements with Flatiron School and all applicable policies of Flatiron School, including but not limited to our Catalog and Code of Conduct.
4. You acknowledge and agree that The Flatiron School Access Scholarship was subject to certain eligibility criteria and that you represented to us in your application that you met specific criteria. Flatiron School reserves the right to withdraw the scholarship and terminate your participation in the Program if: you are found to have made any false or misleading statements in connection with your application for the scholarship or the Program; you fail to maintain satisfactory academic progress; or you engage in misconduct in violation of Flatiron School's Code of Conduct or otherwise materially violate applicable policies or any agreement between you and Flatiron School.
5. You represent that you are not related by blood or marriage to any owner, director, officer, member, or employee of Flatiron School LLC or any of their affiliates.
6. In connection with your receipt and acceptance of The Flatiron School Access Scholarship, and as consideration for the other agreements contained in this letter, you grant Flatiron School LLC, and its affiliates, successors and assigns, and their respective licensees, advertising agencies and the employees, officers, directors and agents of each and all of them, the right and permission with respect to any Program-related testimonial (written or oral), photographs, film, video or other images, or sound recordings of you, and any Program-related project or other code or project created by you during your enrollment in the Program, and to use such materials on a perpetual, worldwide basis, and in any medium or format whatsoever now existing or hereafter created, including, but not limited to, in and on the internet, and for any purpose, including, but not limited to, advertising, program and teacher improvement, public relations, publicity, packaging and promotion of Flatiron School and its businesses, products and services, without your further consent and without royalty, payment or other to you.

7. In connection with your receipt and acceptance of the Scholarship and your participation in Flatiron School, Flatiron School may collect, process, host, and disclose personal information about you in accordance with our privacy policy, which may be found at <https://flatironschool.com/privacy/>. You agree, upon request by Flatiron School from time to time, to provide in writing information about you and your family, including, without limitation, information about your demographics, veteran status, eligibility for other protected class under the Americans with Disabilities Act (or similar law), family income (either before, during or after the Program), occupation (either before, during or after the Program). Such information will be used solely in connection with your receipt and acceptance of the Scholarship and participation in Flatiron School.
8. Your receipt of the scholarship may have tax implications for you. Flatiron School makes no representations or warranties concerning the tax implications or tax treatment of the Scholarship. Any tax consequences to you which may arise out of the scholarship are solely your responsibility. It is recommended that you seek professional advice concerning any tax consequences.

If you would like to confirm your acceptance of The Flatiron School Access Scholarship and signify your agreement to the terms of this letter agreement, please sign your name in the space provided below no later than 10 business days prior to your cohort start date. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Flatiron School's Admissions team at admissions@flatironschool.com.

Congratulations again!! We are excited for you to begin the Program.

Sincerely,

FLATIRON SCHOOL LLC

By: Annette Duskow

Name: Annette Duskow

Title: VP of Admissions

Accepted and Agreed to By:

DocuSigned by:

4E4FC24FB636421...
Daniel Interiano

Date: June 17, 2021